Treville Positano

Noble Heritage

The buildings are some of Positano's most ancient structures, as well as the former home of Franco Zeffirelli, Italy's celebrated opera and film director. Villa Treville has always nurtured an atmosphere of culture and creativity as becomes evident through the impressive roster of guests Treville Positano has hosted over the years.

Artists such as Maria Callas, Leonard Bernstein, Rudolf Nureyev, Coco Chanel, Liza Minnelli, Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton, to name a few, retreated to Treville Positano in search of their own peaceful sanctuary. In 2007 the property was converted into a luxury resort. The book "Villa Treville – Zeffirelli's Paradise in Positano" is out now and available to purchase for anyone wishing to have more information regarding the estate's history of Treville.

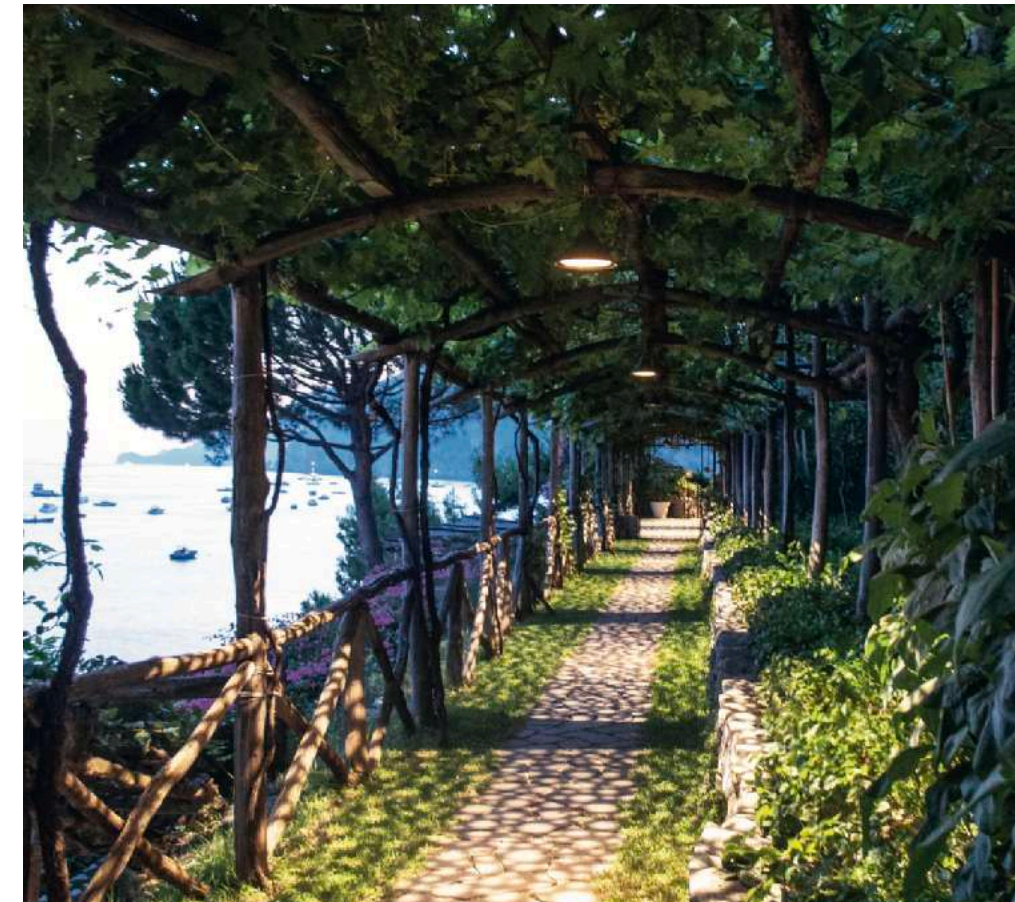

Treville Positano

Positano's Crown Jewel

Treville Positano is made of five villas directly facing Positano, surrounded by lush gardens and secluded terraces. The property is extended on 12 levels, connected by four elevators and four galleries as well as steps that lead down to a private seaside sundeck and jetty.

Situated in Positano, on a cliffside estate overlooking the clear blue waters of the Amalfi Coast, Treville Positano enjoys an unparalleled location. Right outside Positano's busy centre and easily accessible by boat or helicopter from Sorrento, it offers its guest a unique combination of cosmopolitanism and peaceful seclusion in equal measure.

Treville Positano

Picturesque Positano

Nothing says southern Italian escape quite like a visit to impossibly chic and equally scenic Positano. The once quiet fishing village sitting on the cliff sides of southern Italy's Amalfi Coast is one of Europe's most renowned luxury getaway destinations. Its pebbled beaches and picturesque narrow streets attract visitors from around the globe, its charms featuring prominently in countless Instagram posts full of wanderlust. Little pastel-coloured homes line the line the cliffs and shores, their soft hues a perfect antithesis to the stern rocks cascading down to the deep blue sea. Steeped in fascinating tradition, brimful with authentic, untampered culinary offerings and exuding the kind of grandeur reserved to glamorous decades gone by, Positano represents the type of destination you fall in love with once but for a lifetime.

SENSATIONAL
FLAVOURS

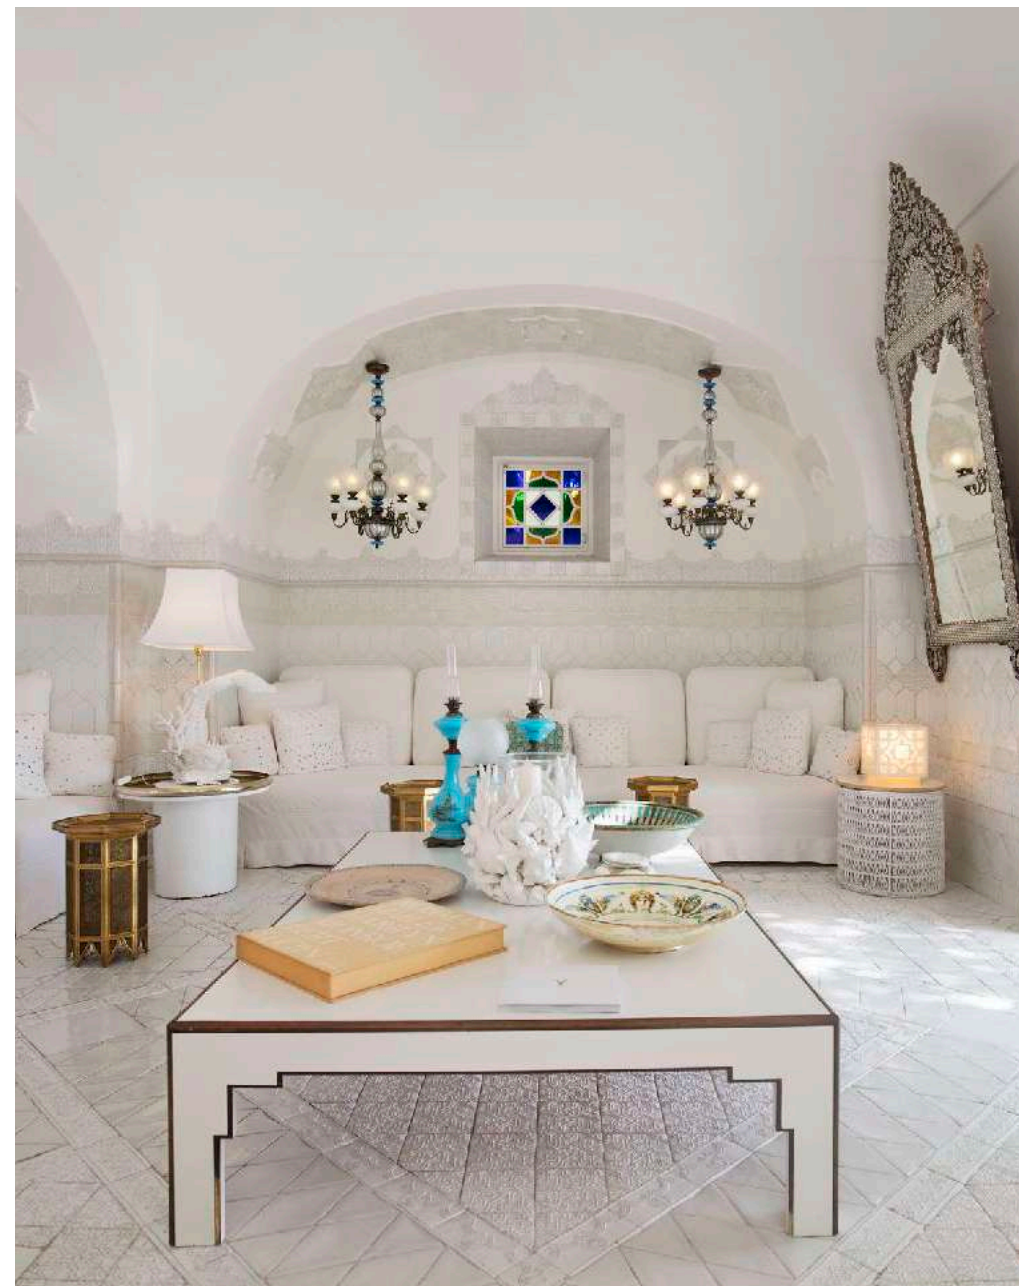

Maestro's Terrace

A Taste of the Theatrical

Treville Positano's main restaurant, Maestro's Terrace, is situated in Villa Azzurra's large terracotta-tiled, vine-covered open terrace and offers breathtaking panoramic views over Positano's stunning topaz seascape. Food and beverage services of unparalleled quality and freshness are available throughout the day while the fine dining experience on offer bears the signature of head Chef Vincenzo Castaldo.

Bianca Bar

Simply Iconic

The Salone Bianca, located at the heart of Villa Bianca, is home to the botanical bar, where evening drinks and fruit cocktails with homemade infusions and herbs from the estate's gardens are served. The spacious, light filled room stands out for its white ceramics and the vine-adorned terrace right outside with its Moroccan aesthetic, plush sofas and veils billowing in the breeze becomes the perfect vantage point from which to enjoy Positano's simply breathtaking trademark vistas.

La Traviata Wellness & Spa

Wellness Wonderland

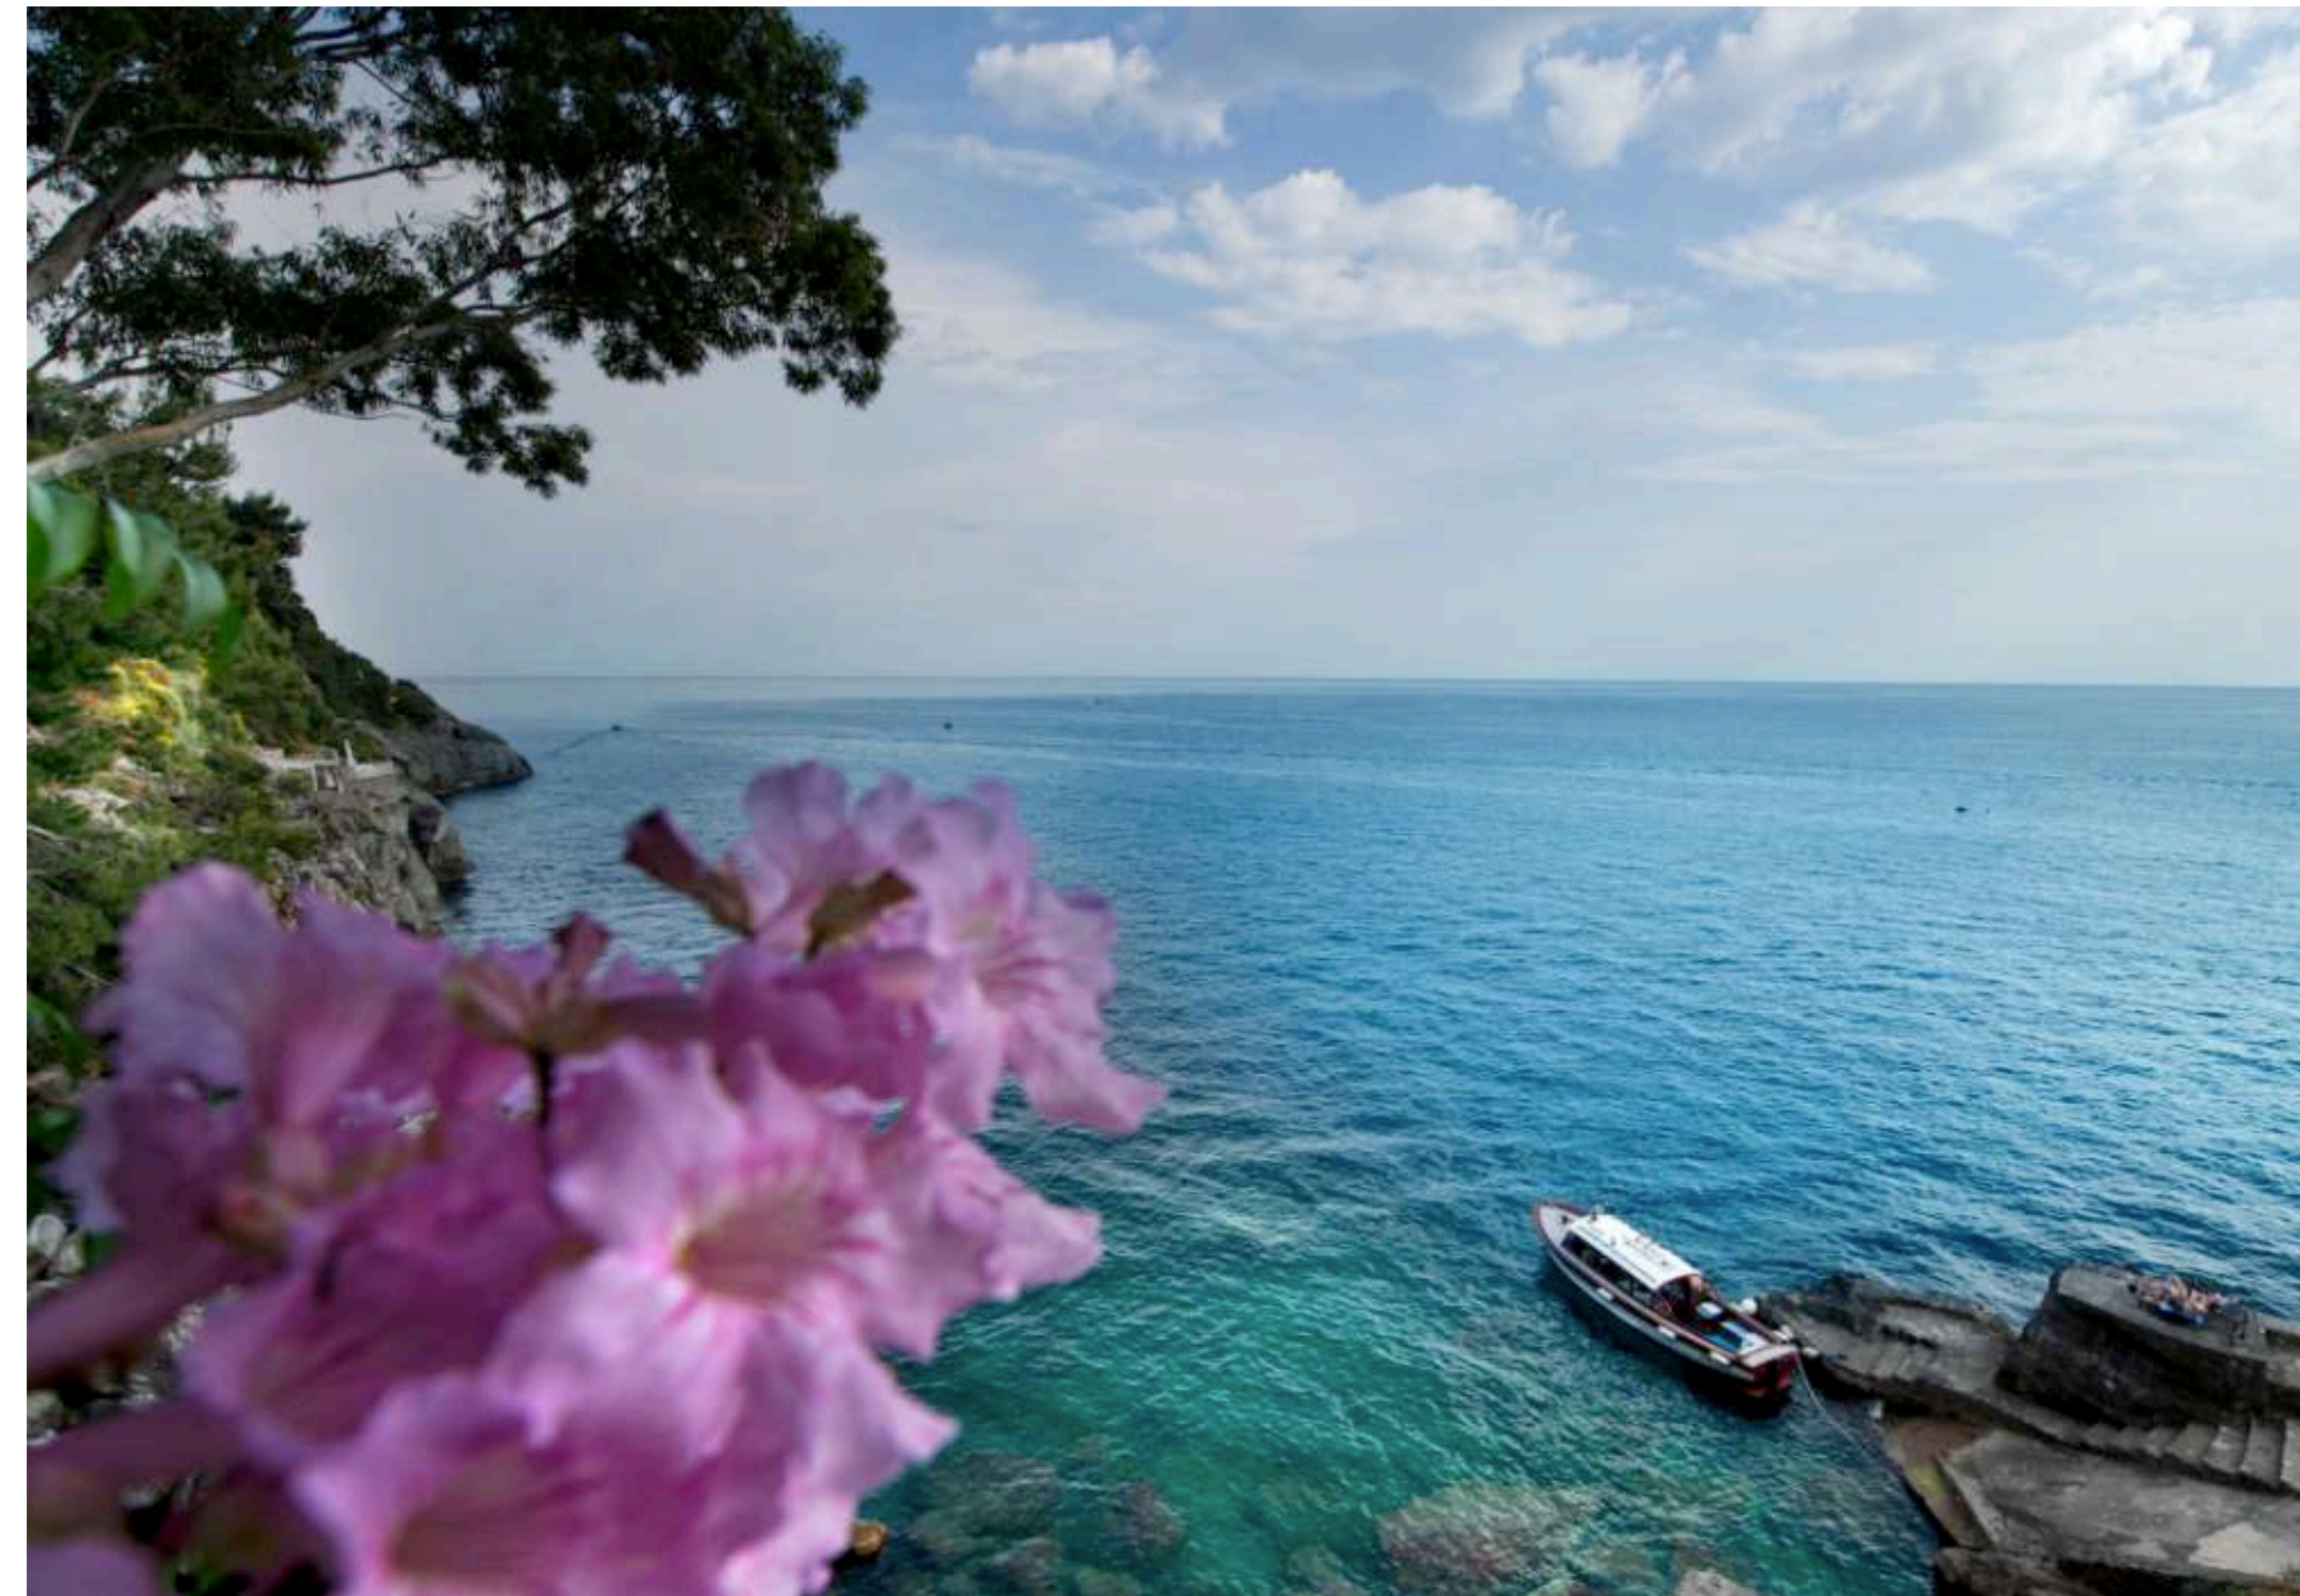

Treville Positano's wellness oasis is located on a verdant outdoor level, surrounded by lush gardens and looking out to the vast expanse of the sea. La Traviata Wellness & Spa, complete with hammam, treatment rooms and the state-of-the-art gym with Technogym equipment, including calisthenic workout kits, offer guest an unparalleled experience of fitness, relaxation and restoration amid a paradisaal setting with an edenic appeal. The products used for the invigorating treatments available at La Traviata Spa are made in Treville Positano's farm laboratory with first-class ingredients from the estate's garden and farm.

On the Rocks

Hidden Gem

“Dolce far niente” comes into being right here: on Treville Positano’s private beach, situated on the lowest level, complete with sun loungers. Against an endless blue backdrop the sun’s rays, fresh sea breeze and the privacy offered by a secluded, hidden bay, sheltered from Positano’s frequent boat traffic are blended together creating Treville’s winning summertime recipe. Timeless and truly Mediterranean, lounging under the summer sun and enjoying refreshing dips in the water become a daily ritual at Treville, one that retains its magical summer lustre as the hours tick by.

Experiences

The Farm

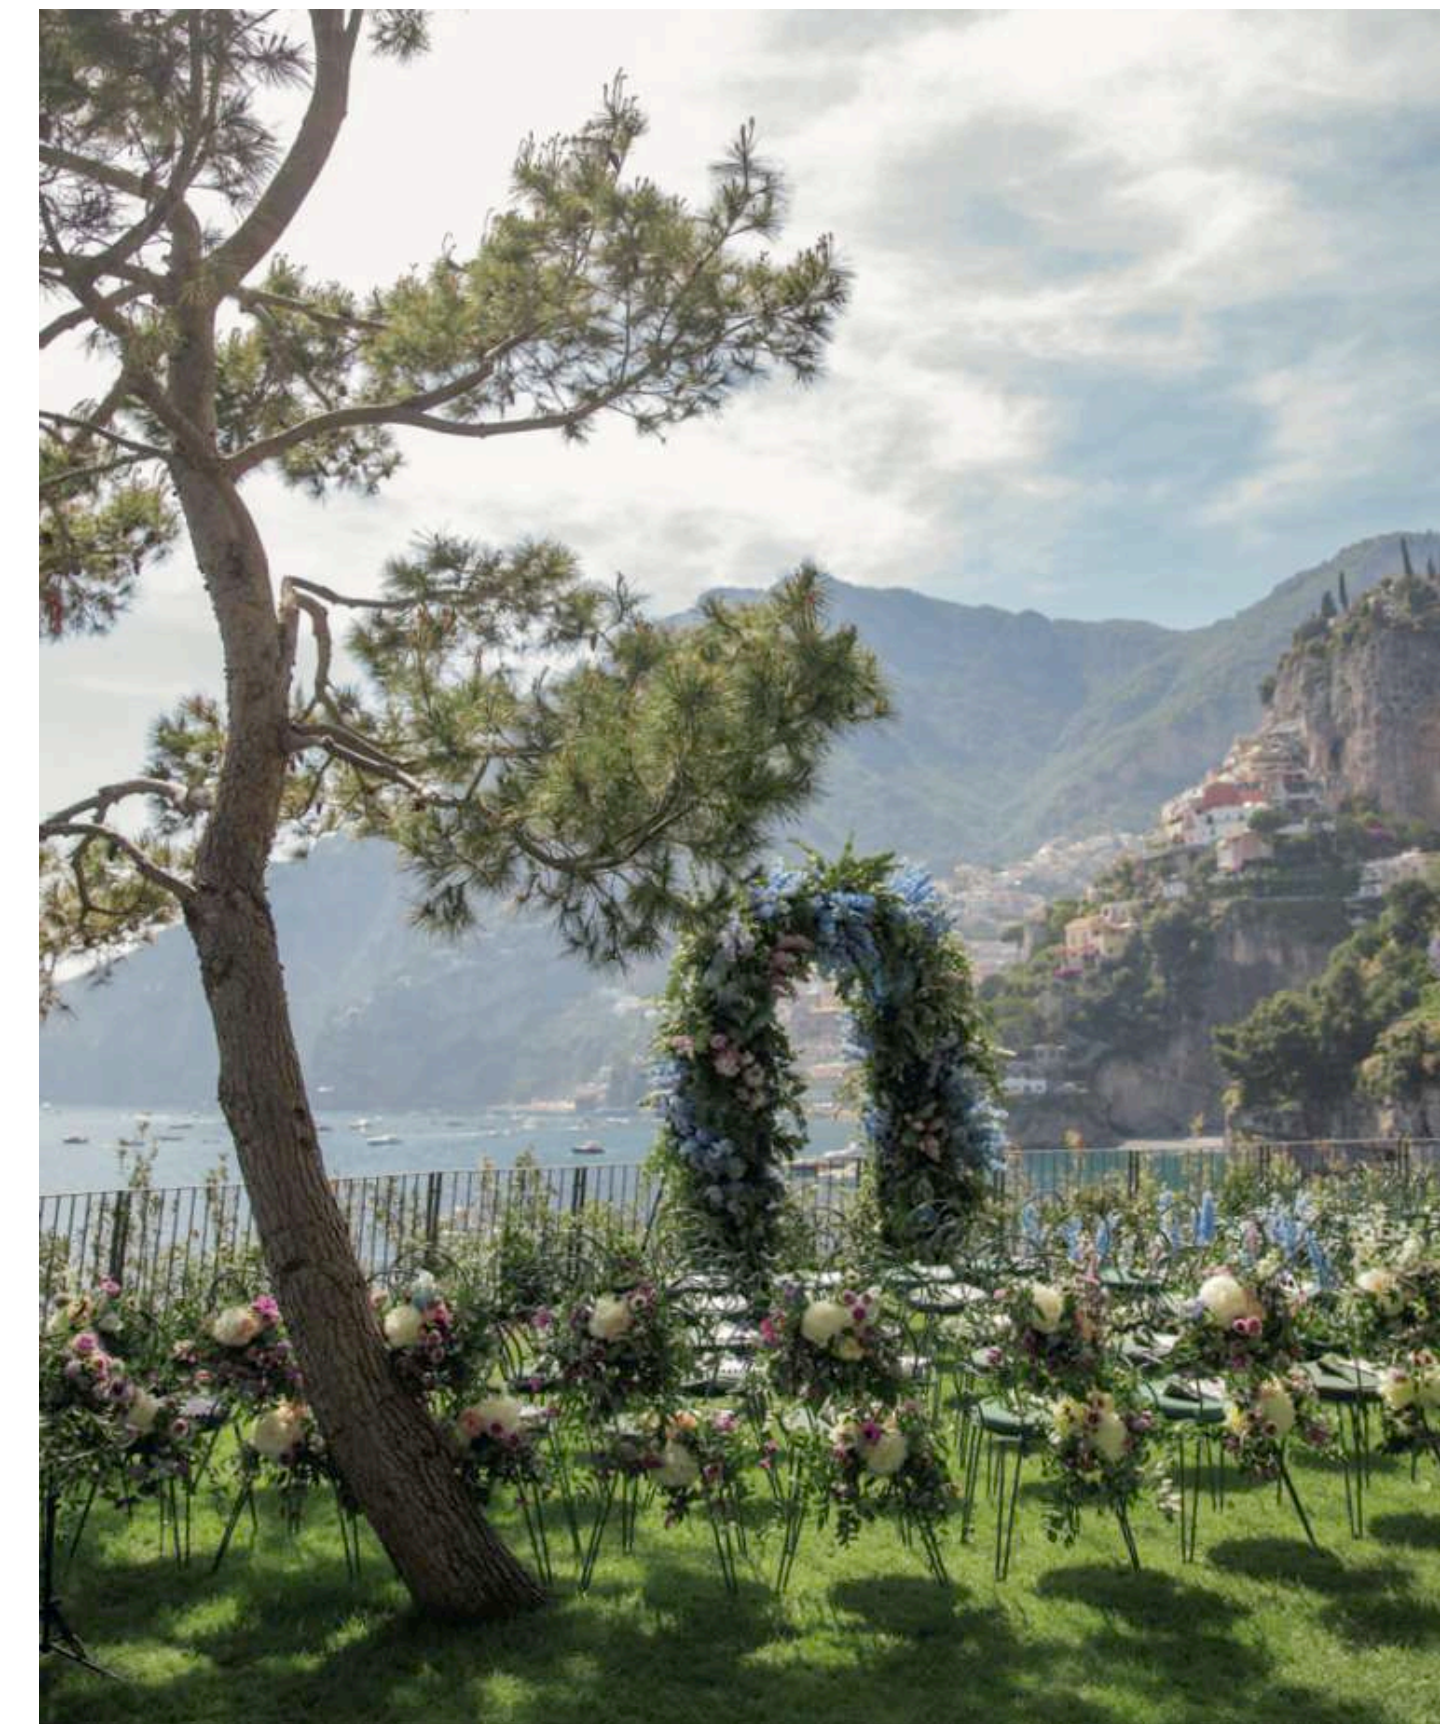

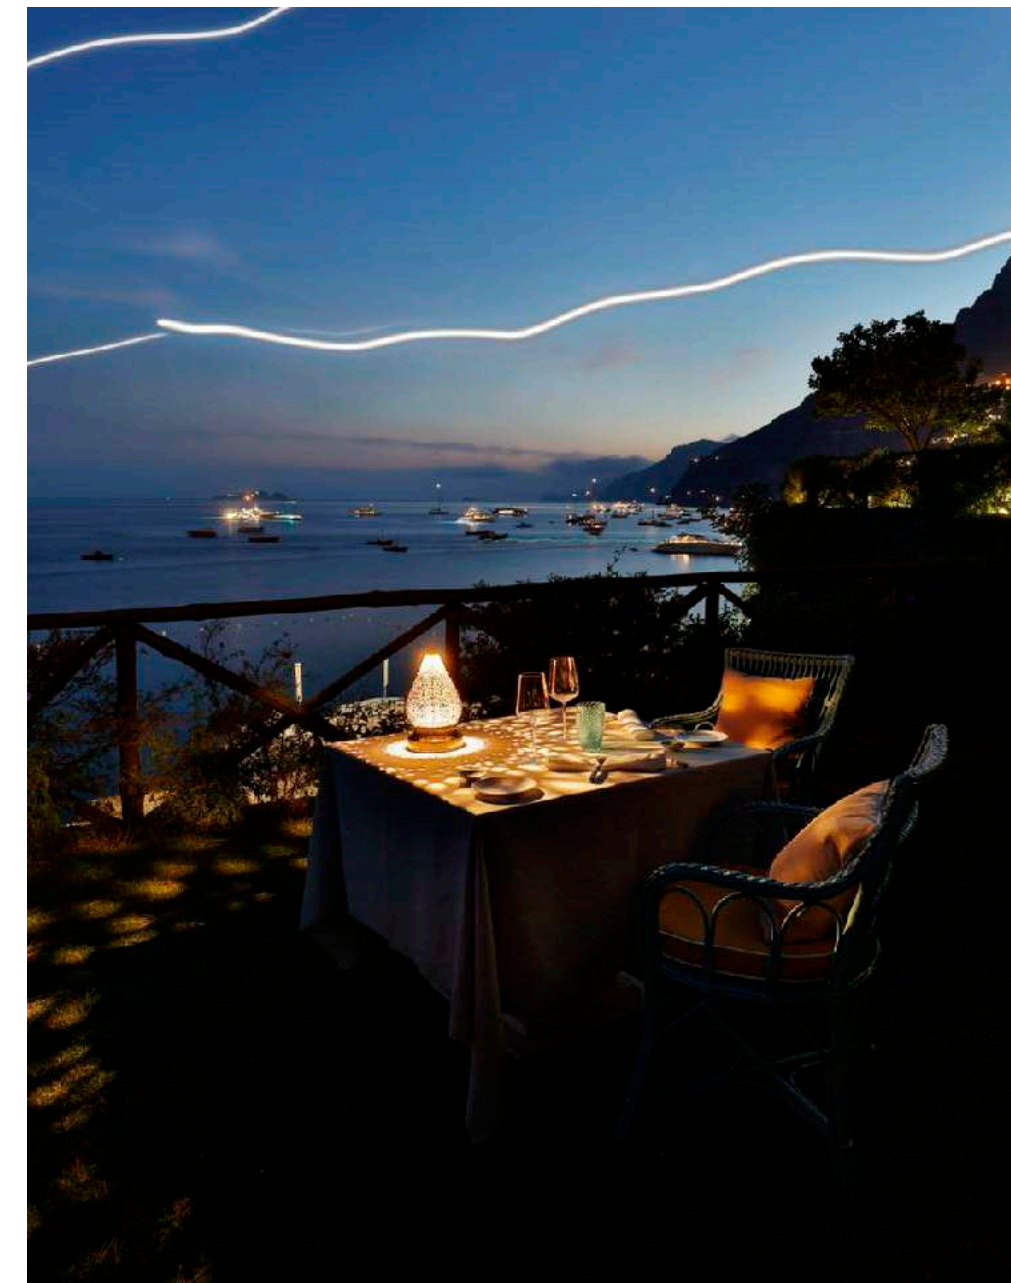

The grounds of Treville Positano also host the Farm: an organic vegetable garden where the freshest ingredients are grown, picked and used in the mouthwatering dishes available, as well as a rooster and hen coop that provides the estate with fresh laid eggs on a daily basis.

Events

Memories Forever More

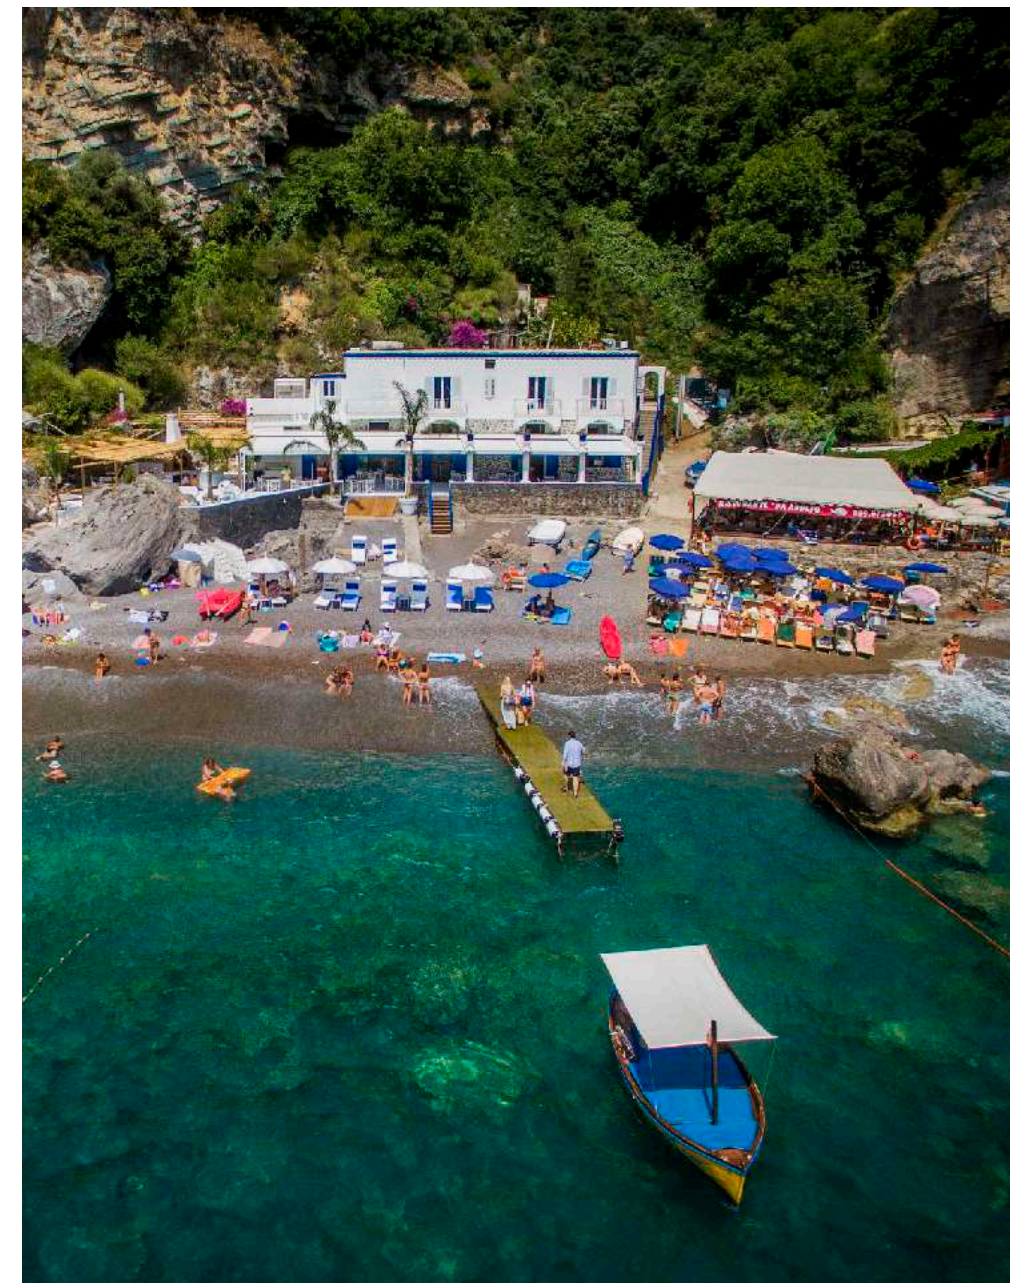

- Book the entire Property
 - Book Tre Pini Green Park or La Rotonda
- La Rotonda, Treville Positano's events venue is perfectly suited to host large events or just a dinner for two with the same commitment to quality and detail. Looking out onto the shores of Positano, enjoy an array of incredible culinary creations, served directly by consulting Chef Tonino Mellino of Quattropassi Nerano.

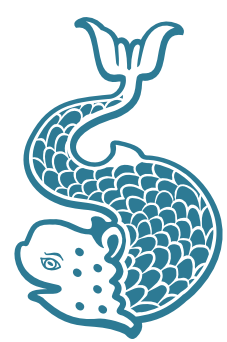

Laurito Beach

Seaside Bliss

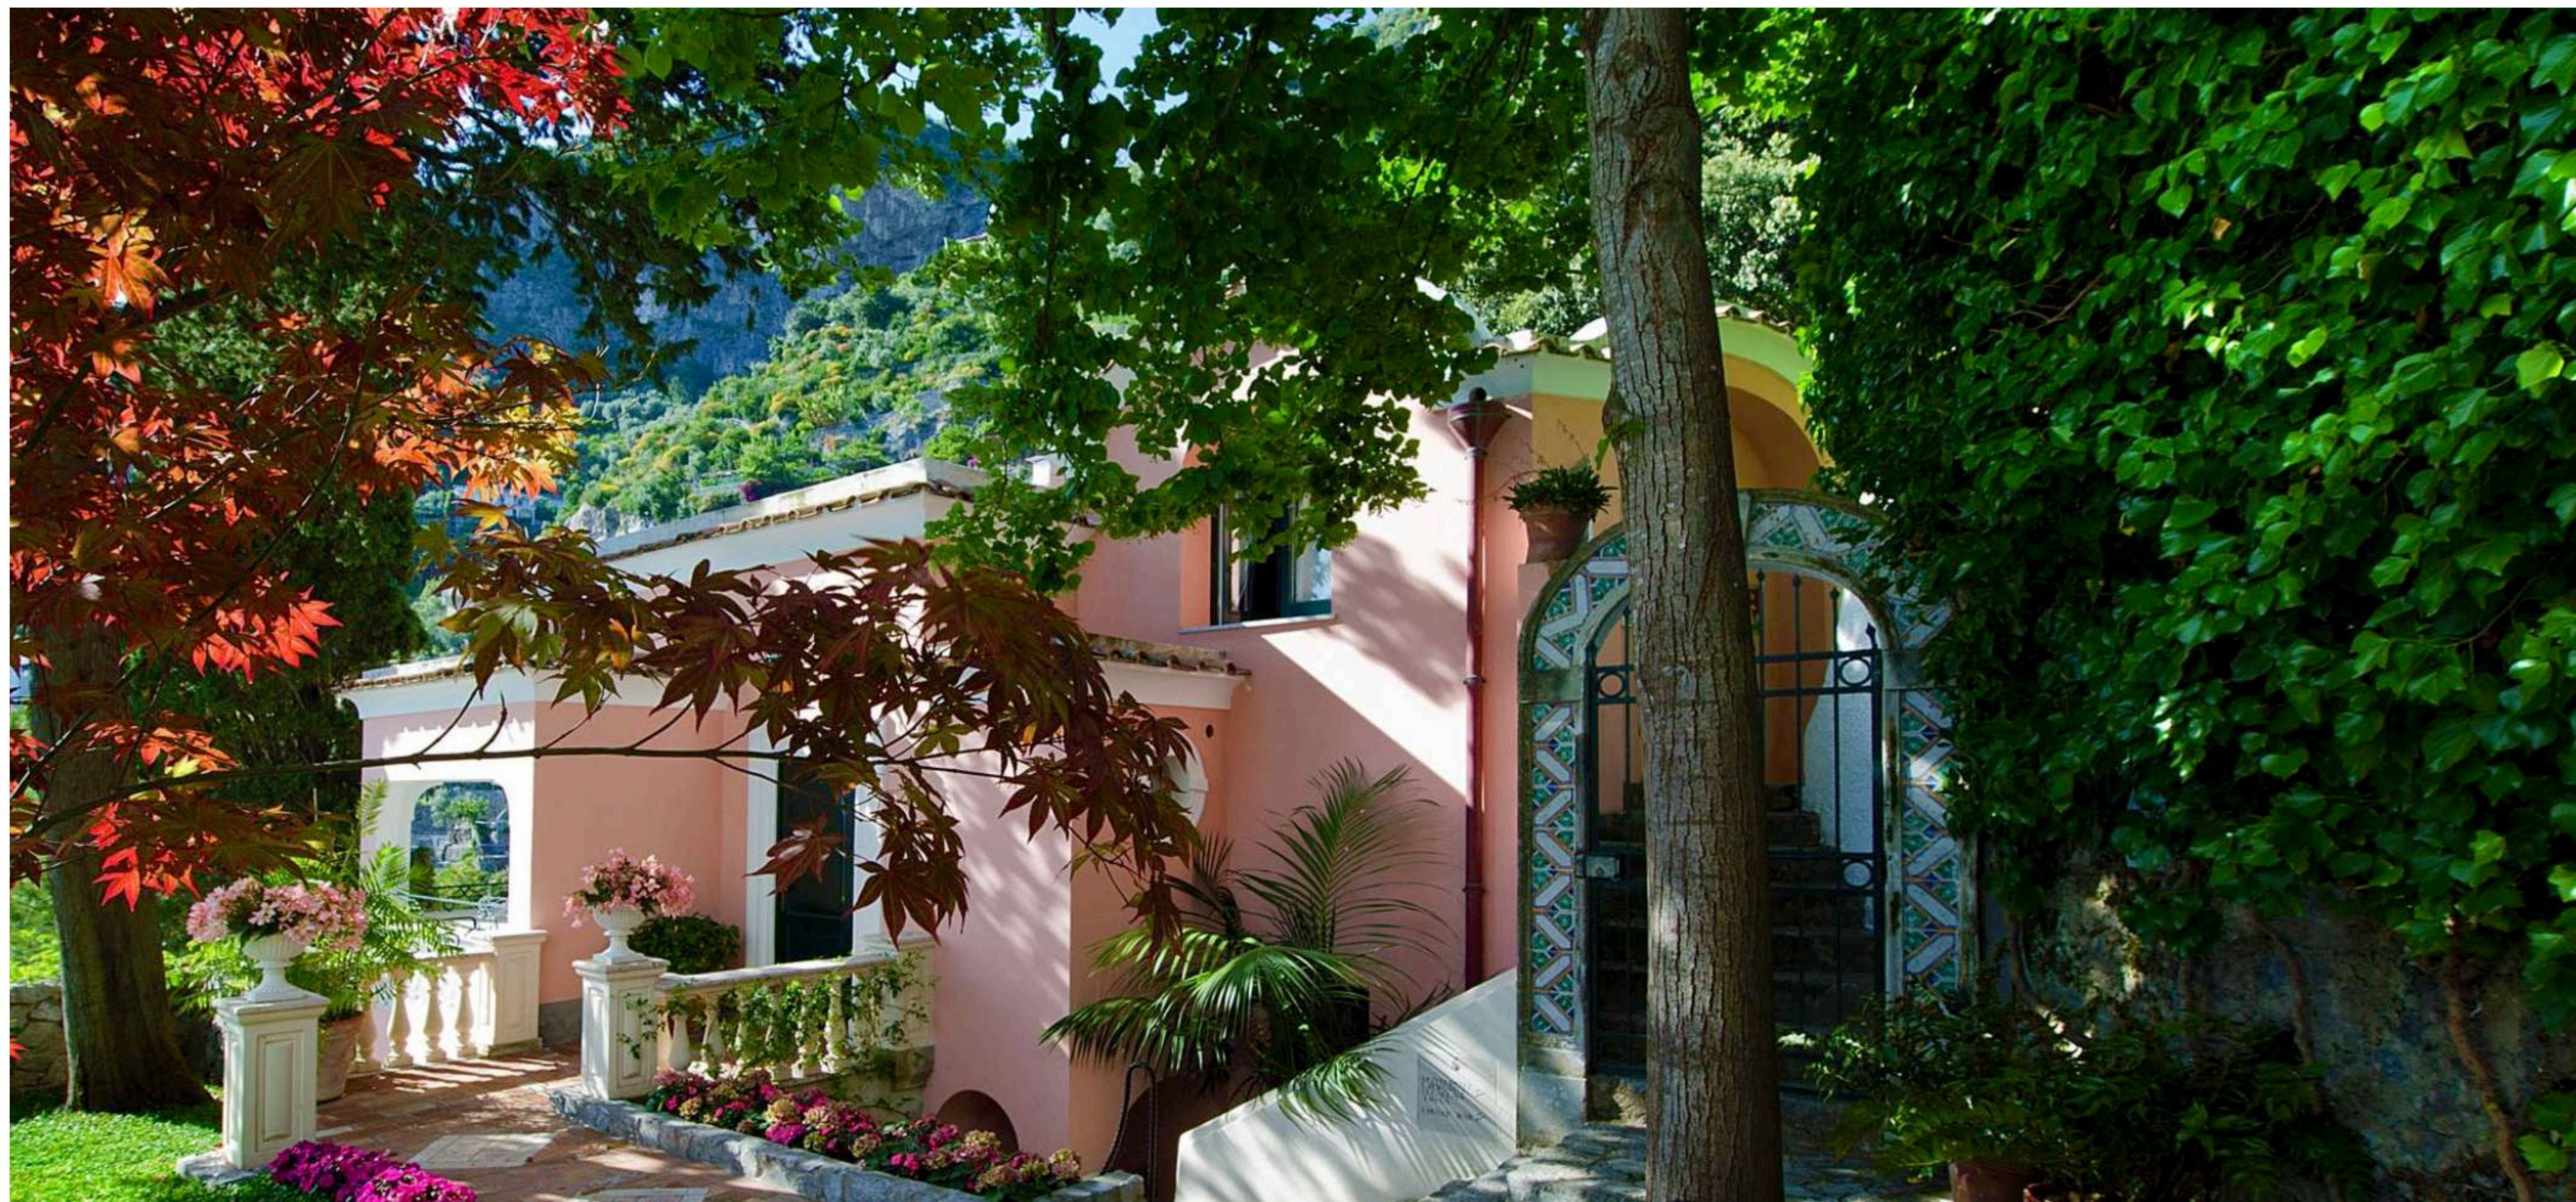

Located on one of Positano's most beautiful and secluded beaches, Laurito Beach is only a three minute boat ride from the hotel and operates during the summer months, according to weather conditions. Fresh fish, traditional pasta and delicious pizza are served Laurito Beach's restaurant with the consultancy of the Michelin star chef of Quattropassi Nerano. Laurito Beach also offers the option of staying in one of its eight, Mediterranean-inspired rooms, four boasting sea views and four looking out to the mountains, all located on the beachfront residence's first floor.
